FOR A BRIEF MOMENT Melba Johansen pauses to play with several of the hundreds of abandoned and stray cats she and her husband, Gunnar, offer a haven to at Meow Meadows, their 2-acre home in Ygnacio Valley. But the pause must be brief, for though the job the Johansens' are doing is necessary and worthy, they must work desperately hard. They have recently had to close up the Meadows and are requesting contributions of badly needed funds.

Cat Haven Seeks Aid for Continuance of It's Work

By ED DORIAN

"There is a crying need for our kind of work here in Contra Costa, but my husband, Gunnar and I simply cannot continue to carry the burden alone. We desperately need help!", said Melba Johansen of 401 Valley Vista Road in Ygnacio Valley.

For the past 3½ years, Mr. and Mrs. Johansen have worked hard at keeping up "Meow Meadows," a two-acre haven for abandoned and stray cats.

BUT RECENTLY Meow Meadows had to close its doors to the 150 to 200 cats that arrived there daily due to a lack of funds for veterinary and food bills. Mrs. Johansen discounted the time and effort they have put into their work.

"We do it because someone must. There is actually a great need for better understanding and education of the cat problem in the country today.

"As a result of the country's 40,000,000 unwanted cats, thousands are put to death in the major cities every day. When let to roam they become carriers of diseases."

TO COUNTERACT this needless destruction, the Johansens, who are strong anti - vivisectionists, strongly recommend a program of "— spaying and castration to cut down on the cat population and strike a balance.

Mrs. Johansen pointed out the amazing fact that from one unattended female cat, will stem 34,000 cats at the ends of a five year period.

The Johansens' have made their home in Ygnacio Valley for five years. Approximately 3 years ago they took in one stray cat they found in Berkeley, and from that grew their worthy but unrecognized work of today.

MRS. JOHANSEN chuckeld and said, "It's like building a better mouse-trap, everyone beats a path to your door. The place grew like Topsy."

For the past seven years the Johansens have been volunteer helpers of Pet Welfare, a national organization whose headquarters are in Oakland. Mrs. Johansen has been national president for the past two years.

They would point out, "There is no connection what-so-ever between Pet Welfare and Meow Meadows. The costs of operating the meadows has come out of our own pockets."

"IT'S STRANGE the way people abuse cats," Mrs. Johansen said. "We have tried to charge the small price of 50 cents for a cat left with us, but people won't pay that for its care; not even when the cat is a special family pet. Instead they will abandon the creature in the streets thus adding to the already terrific cat problem."

She went on to say, "There are too many fallacies connected with cats, especially the one about cats doing harm to little babies. To discredit this fallacy she told the following story about "Duchess." She is an exqusite blue-eyed white angora, who unfortunately is stone deaf. The cat was found in Palo Alto by a woman who realized her worth, but after three weeks of unsuccessful advertising Duchess was sent to me.

"Obviously she had been handed from home to home and had spent a considerable time wandering, for when she came to me she was so vicious that she would attack me. But now she sleeps in the crib with my one-year-old son Jan.

"OH, AND ANOTHER thing, cats, if given a good home, are the cleanest pets possible. Baby Jan and my daughter Tekla, 3½, couldn't be healthier; they have been surrounded by literally thousands of cats."

While the meadows is temporarily closed the Johansens will repaint, build cages and facilities to set up boarding kennels which will in some part contribute to the cat work they feel they must continue for the good of the county.

But they must have help and cannot open until that help is given. "The county has a fine pound but it has neither ample space nor the permission to spay and castrate which will, by cutting down the population, discontinue the necessary need for destroying thousands of cats daily," Mrs. Johansen said.

"WE AS PRIVATE operators are allowed to administer to the animals. And I know that there are many who would like to help relieve this problem but have neither the facilities nor the stamina. We will do it, but it must be realized that this sort of work costs money. We must have outside help."

The Johansens are asking contributions of one, two or three dollars for their worthy work.

Their main object is to eventually give a treated cat a proper home. "We practice no promiscuous giving of cats to children without the assurance that the animal will have a good home," Mrs. Johansen said.

MEOW MEADOWS boasts of a collection of cats ranging from the purebred Persians, Manx and Siamese to the common domestic short-hair.

Mrs. Johansen said, "It seems that people have not only lost respect for each other now-a-days but they have completely lost all respect for the lower orders of animal life.

"Humans were given dominion over the lower orders and they have abused the privilege. In many instances people have even misunderstood the work Gunnar and I are trying to do here.

"WE INTENSELY FEEL that all creatures should be given an intelligient chance for survival. Our work here at the meadows has given us a satisfying sense of religion.

"But we have gone as far as we can. We cannot continue to carry the load alone. We must have financial assistance."

Contributions for the continuance of the worthwhile work being done at Meow Meadows may be made directly to the Johansens or to Mrs. Jean Bigham at the Lafayette Pet Shop.

The Johansens stress that any donation, no matter how small, will be of value to them.

Brookwood Road Being Rebuilt

Rebuilding of the southeast half of the width of Brookwood Road for a distance of about 500 feet, from Moraga Highway to the freeway, began Monday.

County Traffic Engineer Basil Andrews said yesterday: 'Traffic has been one way all week on Brookwood Road — northeast — and no parking has been allowed on the side being rebuilt.

The $5000 project is part of the county's capital outlay program for the 1955-56 fiscal year.

School Children Draw 'Reprieve'

By WALT JOHNSON

Orinda school children will have their summer vacations extended six days, Superintendent of Schools Joseph Sheaff announced this week. The new opening date of school is September 12, rather than September 6.

Sheaff explained that although the new Sleepy Hollow School should be completed on the earlier date, there will be no furniture in the building to accommodate pupils at that time. Everything will be in order come September 12, and classes will commence throughout the district.

CONSTRUCTION of the new Pine Grove School for seventh and eighth graders is expected to be completed in the latter part of October, Sheaff said. Pending its completion, a temporary schedule of classes will be in effect in the district.

For the start of school, on September 12, here are tentative plans relative to grades in various schools:

Del Rey will include kindergarten through the sixth grade, with the first grade on a double session schedule.

Glorietta will be the same except for the first, second and third grades on a double session basis.

Orinda School will include kindergarten through eighth grade, with the seventh and eighth grades double session .

Sleepy Hollow will run from kindergarten through the fifth grade, with no double sessions.

WHEN PINE GROVE School is completed, the following setup will be in effect:

Del Rey—kindergarten through fifth grade.

Glorietta—kindergarten through fourth grade.

Orinda — kindergarten through sixth grade.

Sleepy Hollow — kindergarten through sixth grade.

All seventh and eighth graders in the district will switch from Orinda School to Pine Grove.

SUPERINTENDENT Sheaff said double session pupils would be faced with some hard work for a while. A pupil attending either session will receive a full 240 minutes of schooling, broken only by three 5-minute recess periods.

He also cautioned parents to register children who have not been registered previously, or they will not be accepted on the first day of school.

Registration hours are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily at Orinda School. A birth certificate must accompany kindergarten and first grade pupils. The former must be four years and nine months old as of September 1, 1955, and the latter five years and nine months as of the same date. A transfer from the last school attended for first graders will serve in lieu of a birth certificate.

New Market to Open in October

The new $200,000 Lucky Store on Moraga Highway and Camino Pablo will be completed about the first of September.

Approximately four weeks will be required to stock the supermarket and prepare for its opening in October. The 12,500 - square - foot store will have 250 feet of refrigerated display cases, four mechanized customer check stands and parking facilities for about 80 cars. About 40 employees will staff the market.

Four additional store spaces are in the building fronting on Moraga Highway. They will contain a cleaning establishment, launderette and real esate office. The fourth space has not been leased yet, officials said.

Both Sides File Appeals on Dr. Thomas Permit

A strange situation confronted the Board of Supervisors Monday when both parties in the Dr. Thomas land use dispute filed an appeal to the Planning Commission's August 2 decision, granting him a land use permit.

Dr. Thomas proposes to build a professional building at the southeast corner of Moraga Highway and Southwood Drive. His Monday appeal, filed by Attorney Carlisle Nielsen, objects to the imposed 25-foot setback from Moraga Highway ,believing this condition hinders accomplishment of maximum off-street parking on the lot.

ATTORNEY GLADYS Schwatka filed an appeal for a hearing on behalf of the Orinda Homeowners Committee, objecting to the commission's affirmative decision.

The Board of Supervisors decided at its Tuesday meeting that it will hear the appeals on Monday, September 12, at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Paul Vashell said the substance of the homeowners' appeal was as follows:

"1. The Planning Commission's findings are not in accord with the facts, in that the granting of the permit will be detrimental to the health, safety, welfare and price structure of the community. It will have the intent and purpose of nullifying the intent and purpose of the Master Plan.

"2. The matter of off-street parking stalls to be provided, three for each professionl suite, is insufficient to protect the community against the increased traffic hazards and congestion generated by the occupancy of such a building.

"3. THE EFFECT OF granting of such land use permit is to extend the business district of Orinda into a residential area now zoned R-A. This will create a precedent for the establishment of similar professional and commercial uses in contiguous and heavy residential areas. The result is a vicious practice of spot zoning by land use permit.

"4. There are no special or unusual circumstances of exceptional characteristics affecting the aforesaid property or would it result in practical difficulty or unnecessary hardships to the the applicant. On the contrary, there are now building restrictions in the deed, limiting the property to residential use.

Nielsen, the physician's attorney, said that deed restrictions run out in January, 1961,

"DR. THOMAS found there was no central building in Oirnda fit for medical practice," said Nielsen. "Professional men are unhappy with the situation; good medical facilities will induce good medical men to locate and practice."

"In talking with interested persons, we believe that majority opinion favors a medical building on the site," Nielsen concluded.

Dr. Thomas was authorized by the Planning Commission to build a two-story office building with a pharmacy on the ground floor, with three parking spaces provided for each professional suite.

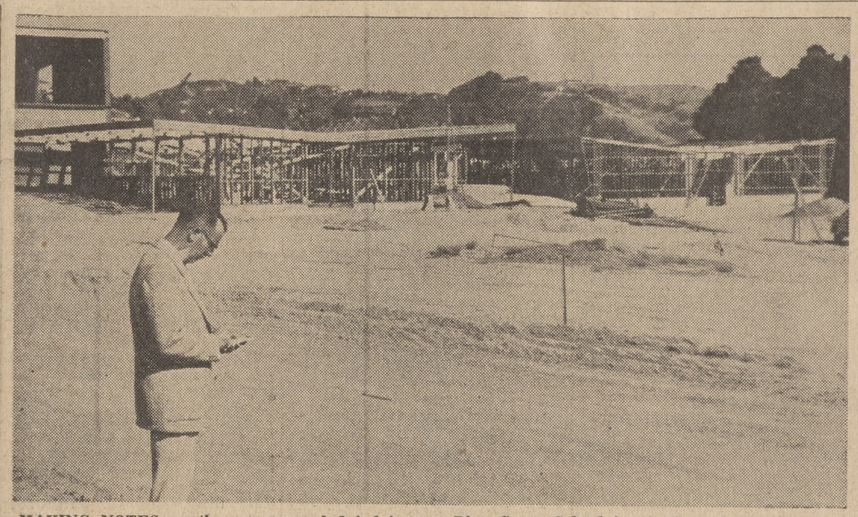
were discussed.



MAKING NOTES on the progress of Orinda's new Pine Grove School is District Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff. The school will accomodate the district's seventh and eighth graders upon completion in the latter part of October. In the meantime, they will attend classes on a double session basis at Orinda School, beginning September 12.

Adjustors Deny Three Permts For Land Use

In its Wednesday night meeting in Martinez, the Board of Adjustment:

1. Denied a land use permit to W. Jason Evans, a building contractor to have a 5-foot setback from Vallecito Lane and 10-foot sideyard located on Orinda Park Terrace, Lot 24, Block D.

The property has a 189-foot frontage on the south side of Vallecito Lane, approximately 450 feet southeast of El Toyonal.

A letter of opposition, signed by William Thurston, president of the Hacienda Improvement Association, was presented to the board.

2. Denied a permit to Lyle York to sell his lot fronting on the north side of Camino Don Miguel near Santa Lucia. The lot embraces approximately 11,500 square feet.

3. Denied Alta Trenery application for a land use permit for a "home - occupation" beauty salon, located at the southwest corner of Northwood Drive and Northwood Court.

Attorney Gladys Schwatka, on behalf of Orindans, Inc., presented a petition against the permit, signed by 50 residents.

Two letters in opposition were also presented to the board. One was signed by James G. Hupp, chairman of the planning committee of the Orinda Association. The other was from Ernest Hunter, vice president of Orindans, Inc.

PIE Camp Silent On Pine Grove

All was quiet this week on PIE's side of the lines in the Pine Grove battle over the $750,000 office headquarters the trucking firm would like to build on land currently zoned residential-agricultural at Orinda's Pine Grove.

The Sun spoke with Ted Palmer, PIE's director of public relations yesterday, who said his company had no statements to issue on the dispute this week .

Requests for 2nd Polio Shot Must Be in by Sept. 1

Parents of children, who had their first polio vaccine injections in April or May, must send a written request to the County Health Department by September 1, in order to obtain an appointment for the child's second injection, it was announced Monday.

The request must include the name of the child, the date and place of the first injection, and the name and address of the parents. An appointment card will then be mailed to them.

NO FIRST INJECTIONS will be given at the make-up clinics, and second injections will be given by appointment only.

Only 2,841 of the 11,056 Contra Costa first and second graders who received initial shots in the anti-polio vaccination program, took advantage of the second shots administered last week by the County Health Department.

THE SEPTEMBER CLINIC will be set up for those who wished second shots but were unable because of vacations or other reasons to have them last week.

The second shots were administered at community clinics throughout the county, with doctors and nurses giving their time as volunteers.

Cummings Says He'll Run for Supervisor Again

H. L. "Jack" Cummings, chairman of the board of supervisors, countered reports that he "made a deal" not to seek office again in return for the dropping of a recall threat by announcing this week that he will be a candidate for re-election next year.

He is presently serving his fifth consecutive term as chairman. He first took office as a Second District supervisor in January, 1933.

ALSO EXPIRING next year are the terms of Supervsiors Warren Buchanan of Pittsburg, of the Fourth Supervisorial District, and Jacob Frederickson of Antioch, representing the fifth district.

Frederickson has announced that he will run again and Buchanan indicated he might, "although it is still too early to say."

THE RECALL movement against Cummings was launched in April over the zoning controversy centered about Utah Construction Company.

After several public meetings and the start of circulation of recall petitions, the matter was dropped.

County Polio Rate Drops 80 Per Cent

During the first seven months of 1955 there were 80 per cent fewer cases of polio in Contra Costa County, as compared with the same period in 1954.

Twenty-three cases have been reported through July 31 of this year, Dr. Henrik L. Blum, county health officer, reported on Wednesday.

TO THE SAME date last year the county had 114 cases, he said.

In July of this year the county had had three new cases, two of them paralytic. In July, 1954, 44 cases were reported.

THE SUMMING up follows completion of the second phase of the county's Salk anti-polio vaccination program, conducted August 2 to 4.

Approximately one-fourth of those who took the original Salk shots reported for the booster, Dr. Blum said.

Makeup clinic will be held in September for the first and second graders who took the first shots but missed the second. He said these children will be accepted by appointment only, with parents obligated to write the health department giving the name of the child and the date and place of the first shot.

Board Grants 50-Foot Appeal In Rheem Tract

Frank Draeger's appeal for a 50-foot right of way for Randall Drive and the stub-end street in Moraga Center Unit 3 (Tract 2264) was granted Tuesday by the Board of Supervisors.

Draeger made the appeal last week on behalf of Wilson and Company, engineers for the subdivider, Donald L. Rheem. He pointed out that about 95 per cent of the land "almost stands up on end." The supervisors then went out to inspect the area.

The Planning Commission had required a 60-foot right of way in approving the tentative map for the 32-lot subdivision with the provision that there be full compliance with the recommendations of the commission's technical staff.

Commuters Ask Peak-Hours Cut In Overcrowding

Better scheduling of commute buses during peak hours was requested during peak hours by the Contra Costa County Commuters' Association in a letter written last week to the California Public Utilities Commission.

According to John McKirahan, head of the Commuters' Service Committee, a few minor adjustments were made recently in both the San Francisco and Oakland bus schedules.

However, overcrowding still exists during certain peak periods in the morning schedules and the Commuters' Association has written the PUC to see if some changes in the schedules can be made.

In other business before the Commuters' Board of Directors last week, President Leroy Sowers appointed a nominating committee to select directors for the next two years.

Half of the directors' two-year terms expire in October. Appointed to the nominating committee by Sowers were Sadie Buchanan, Gordon Bigelow and Jerry Trumbly.

In addition, Stanley Ahlborn was named chairman of a committee which will arrange the program for the annual meeting of the Contra Costa County Commuters' Association's full membership in October.

Homeowners Say Others Watching Orinda Outcome

"The determination to make the most of an especially fine and unique suburban area is now being expressed in one suburban community after another across the nation and many other communities much like ours are watching Orinda to see what the outcome will be here," said the Orinda Homeowners Committee in a release yesterday from Headquarters, 6 Vashell Way.

"The suburban picture has changed drastically since it's newness in the 1920's. What IS new today is the contrast between good suburb and bad. Suburban growth in the last 30 years can be compared to that other pioneering adventure — the frontier itself," continued the committee release.

"The design of Orinda invites a longer, harder look than it has yet received. It should be the personal responsibility of each homeowner in Orinda, both to himself and to his community, to learn ALL the facts concerned in the issue."

The Orinda Homeowners Committee asked all vacationing Orindans to think how many disintegrated, unharmonious and hodgepodge towns and developments they passed through sometime this summer during vacation travel. There are few exceptions.

"Orinda is one of them and every effort should be made by each and every resident to see that it develops and matures to the best interests of its property owners. Mr. William Penn Mott, General Chairman, says that response to the campaign has been overwhelming but everyone's help is needed and anyone interested in becoming a sponsor should call headquarters at CL 4-4346.

"Mott emphasized that donors are not automatically made sponsors unless they give approval so if anyone has lent financial support to the campaign and wishes to endorse the residential stand as a sponsor, he should call the headquarters office so that his name can be added to the growing list."

Tax Bill of Residents Expected To Rise 4.8%

Contra Costa County was ordered by the State Board of Equalization early this week to increase its assessed valuation by 35 per cent.

This increase, opposed by county officials, will result in an average tax increase of 4.8 per cent for the homeowner, according to County Administrator D. M. Teeter.

Teeter and Howard McNamer, county auditor, will appear before the board of supervisors today at its final budget hearing to advise how the shift will affect county residents.

Teeter explained that the increase represents a shift of the tax burden from utilities to the property owner.

C.L. DUNKLEE, county assessor, noted that the assessed valuation will climb, under the new ruling, from $483,940,265 to $608,915,755.

The present tentative tax rate, which must be set by September 1 according to state law, is $2.609 per $100 assessed valuation.

In order to keep the tax rate in line County Auditor Howard McNamer said that it will probably be reduced to $2.08, which would bring in approximately the same revenue under the revised valuation.

HOWEVER, TEETER explained that although the board intends to take action to reduce the tax rate to compensate for the increase in valuation, the amount of taxes actually paid will increase slightly.

An additional $100,000 will be gained from an approximate $4 million increase in the assessed valuation of public utility land.

McNAMER SAID that he urged the board to use this money for vitally needed improvements in the county, but that Contra Costa Taxpayers Association has urged that any income received above the original estimate be used to further reduce tax rates.

McNamer estimated that the tax rate could be reduced by another two cents if the utility income is applied for that purpose.

Dunklee criticized the state heavily for its action, commenting:

"WE DO NOT question the right of the state government to make such changes, but we certainly question the wisdom of making such moves so arbitrarily and hastily.

"Left alone, Contra Costa County will provide complete and equitable assessments within reasonable time, at reasonable cost, minus disruption of office facilities, the peoples' tempers and without disturbing any political subdivision," he said.

THE STATE originally indicated it would boost assessed valuation of the county by 45 per cent, but revised the figure to the present 35 per cent increase .

In addition to Contra Costa County, 13 other counties have had their assessed valuation boosted. Increase range from an ordered 19 per cent boost in Butte and Sonoma Counties to 39 per cent in Humboldt and San Bernardino.

The action followed two weeks of hearings by the board.

Freeway Routing Delay Up Before Commissioners

Request for a month's delay on consideration of the Shepherd Canyon freeway route was before the State Highway Commission as The Sun went to press yesterday.

Approval of the delay by the commission should have been a mere formality, according to Assemblyman Donald Doyle, who made the request and gained its approval by the Board of Supervisors August 3.

Assistant State Highway Engineer B. W. Booker previously said the commission would " go along" with the delay if okayed by the county, according to Doyle.

He said the additional 30 days would allow interested residents to have the effect of the freeway upon them investigated at length.

The proposed routing begins at Mountain and Park Boulevards in Oakland, swings through Shepherd Canyon, passes north of St. Mary's College, follows the Sacramento Northern tracks, departs from the tracks in the Reliez Station area and joins Mt. Diablo Boulevard at Pleasant Hill Road.

Sierra Club Trip

Mr. and Mrs. F .O. Pearce of Charles Hill Road, had a memorable trip this summer with the Sierra Club visiting Utah's Dinosaur Canyon and going on a rubber raft down the Green River.

Go to Church Sunday

Community

"Self-confidence without pride" is the sermon topic for Sunday's 10:30 worship service. Rev. Willis E. Wygant Jr. will also preach a Youth Sermon entitled "The Cuckoo."

The service will include a solo by Jim Hupp, baritone, accompanied by Mrs. Dorotyh Turk who will also render organ selections.

The Community Church Youth Leader, Jack Biersdorf, is expected back after his absence of several months through illness. Jack will visit the Summer Sunday School of which he is co-director with Mrs. Elizabeth Laurenson. He will resume his duties as advisor to the Pilgrim Fellowship and will, at times, take part in the morning worship service.

Mrs. Laurenson announces that there have been many willing and helpful people who have forfeited their opportunities for church worship in order to provide a successful Summer Sunday School which meets at the same 10:30 hour.

Among those whose help has been invaluable in this project are Mesdames A. Harmon and L. Atkins in the Nursery Department, Mesdames Kersten and Fish and Miss Jean Reid in Kindergarten Class, Mesdames Phelps, Jones, MacQuiddy, Hartanov, Schilling and Long and the Misses Laurenson and Dail in the Primary Department; Mrs. Wolfenden, Mr. and Mrs. Zavala, Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Hupp and the Misses Howe and Monosmith in the Intermediate Department. Taking Jack Biersdorf's place in the Pilgrim Fellowship Preparatory Class is Mrs. Reese.

Among those assisting Mrs. Laurenson in administration of the church school are Mesdames Margerin, Monosmith and Branch.

Lutheran

"The Bondage of Fear" will be Dr. Paul E. Morentz's sermon topic at the 8 and 11 a.m. services at the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church in Orinda Sunday morning. Sunday School will be held from 9:30 to 10:30.

Dr. Morentz is at present a professor of practical theology and counselor at the Pacific Lutheran Seminary at Berkeley. He completed his psychiatric residency at Veterans Memorial Hospital in Palo Alto, his medical training at Columbia University at the College of Physicians and Surgeons and his theological training at Mount Airy Seminary in Philadelphia.

Bardens Retrieve 1914 Model Car

Steve Barden, his dad, Lance Barden, and friend Barney Vicker returned last week jubilant from the difficult feat of retrieving an old model car, a National which for 25 years has stood out in the weather near an abandoned mine 60 miles from Elko, Nevada.

They had previously ascertained that the owner was Mrs. Nadine Nickerson of Utah. After some correspondence she arranged to meet them at the mine site.

After hearing of their plans to restore the car, she gave the car and title to Steve. She said it had belonged to her father and that she and her little girl friends had had many good times in it.

The jeep and truck trailer had to be used to get the car over the rough seven miles to the nearest road. Then the Barden's Dodge and trailer dragged the 6000 pound weight in a 30-hour continuous drive to Orinda.

Now the old 1914 National will go through a year's rejuvenating process. New tires exactly like the former ones will be made especially for it. A new radiator will have to be designed according to specifications found in old trade magazines. The bent body will be reinforced with metal over wood and the motor repaired.

When all restorings and repairs are completed, the car will be given 20 coats of paint like the original black and dark blue. Then Steve thinks it will be ready to take part in old car parades.

Utah Official Shows Slides of Moraga Progress

A series of colored slides depicting the development of the Moraga area was given its first public showing, before the Orinda Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday by G.P. Frazer, official of Utah Construction Company.

The original Moraga property was a 13,316 acre Spanish land grant awarded to Don Jose Joaquin Moraga in the early 18th cenury.

THE SLIDES, shown at the chamber's noon meeting at The Willows, included drawings, pictures and maps of the Moraga family, Spanish missions, the Gold Rush, railroad construction and projects of Utah Construction Company.

Frazer showed slides of plans for Moraga High School, the Stanford University campus and the location of light and selected industry in Menlo Park.

The latter included the Eastman Kodak, Ford Research, General Electric, Prudential Insurance, Sunset Magazine, All State Insurance, Neilson Research and U.S. Geological Survey buildings.

Frazer said there seemed to be an impression that a heavy, smokestack type of industry was destined for Moraga. 'But we want only selected industry," he emphasized.

"IN PALO ALTO and Menlo Park, beautiful homes are within one half-mile of selected industry," Frazer continued. "I have been told these home owners helped bring in the selected industry.

"Such industry will be far from Lafayette and Orinda, without spoiling the beautiful valley."

He also showed the site sought by the Acalanes School Board of Trustees and the site offered by Utah Construction Company.

In other business during the chamber meeting, Clarence Betz announced that Saturday (tomorrow) would be the deadline for listings in the Orinda business directory.

He also said the State Division of Highways would put up a sign "The Village" pointing under the underpass toward Orinda Village.

Library Rummage Sale Scheduled

The Orinda Library Board will hold a rummage sale at St. George's Hall in Oakland September 8 and 9. Proceeds from this sale will go into the building fund for the future library to be built on community property at Camino Pablo and Irwin Way.

Guarantee of a parcel of this land was made by the Orinda Association Board of Directors in June after many months of consideration.

The following are working on the rummage sale: chairman, Mrs. C. V. Scarich; posters, Mrs. John Madison; storage, Dr. L. L. Farrar; collection, Mr. Joe Navone, Kenneth Courtright, Mrs. Arthur Sassone and Mrs. Vernon Louis! sales, the Mesdames William Hood, Howard Libby, Clifford Campbell, Robert E. Lee, Anthony Yriberri, Gordon Weston, Norman Miller, John McCaffery, Beau Guinther, William Kauffman, James Dupuis, Walter Ammon, Walter E. Estes and E. F. Wilford.

Anyone wishing to contribute rummage should call CL 4-3169 or CL 4-3043. Particularly desired are children's school clothes, costume jewelry, bric-a-brac and small household goods. Believing a new library would benefit everyone in Orinda, the library board hopes for community-wide support.

Vacation at Lake

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Wayne and daughter Linda enjoyed a two week vacation at Echo Lake where their cabin could only be reached by boat from the nearest highway. They took an eight mile hike and a hike to Desolation Valley. They delighted in their evening campfires especially when Robert Brown's family visited them and Bob played his accordion.

Million Gallon Reservoir Takes Place of Tank

A new 1 million gallon reservoir serving the Orinda area was placed in service recently by the East Bay Municipal Utility District, according to Director Thomas S. Neilson.

The new storage facility, Las Aromas Reservoir, is located in Orinda, just south of the intersection of Las Vegas and Via Florado. It replaces the wooden Las Aromas tank formerly located on the same site.

Constructed of pre-stressed steel reinforced concrete, the reservoir has an overflow elevation of 951 feet above sea level. It is in balance with Cotton, Happy Valley and Sleepy Hollow tanks located in the same general area.

"Las Aromas Reservoir is part of the East Bay Municipal Utility District's program of meeting the water needs of our fast-growing East Bay area," Director Neilson stated. "This new filtered water storage reservoir is only one of many EBMUD projects to expand and improve our publicly-owned water system."

Only the Skunk Kept Unruffled During Turmoil

"There's a skunk on your lawn," asserted little Dorena Clark a recent morning to her neighbors, Mrs. H. J. Hart Jr. and her daughter, Linda, 13, as they worked about the kitchen of their home at 38 Meadow Park Court.

The two Harts peered out the living room window, and sure enough, there was a genuine Mephitis mephitica, munching on grass and enjoying the sun.

A hurried call to the Orinda Fire Department brought calm assurance that Mr. Skunk (or Mrs.) would wander away after enjoying a little grass and sun.

The Harts' kitty was sentenced to the basement to prevent any scenting on the skunk's part.

A group of neighborhood children, all holding respective noses, made their way cautiously along the side of the house to take up positions on the living room chesterfield before the window.

The skunk lounged around the premises for about an hour, and then strolled off. Have you looked at your lawn recently?

Sports Cars To Tangle Sunday

Over 10,000 Are Expected at Biggest Event Yet

Northern California sports car circles are a-buzzing with activity as drivers and owners work feverishly to get their cars in perfect shape for the long awaited second half of sports car road racing in this section of California.

Three races in the spring have whetted amateur sports car drivers desire for more competition with their beloved jewels. They are eager for the joy and thrill of this clean, wholesome and daring sport.

SUNDAY the First Annual Buchanana Field Sports Car Road Races, sponsored by the Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill Junior Chambers of Commerce will be held on the 2.3 mile Contra Costa County Airport course near Concord. S.C.C.A. officials have mapped out the fast road circuit with a long straightaway of 4200 feet and 11 challenging bends.

Mighty engined Allards or Ferraris will delight in shooting up to over 150 m.p.h. on the long straight while buzzy little Renaults or Volkswagens will try to show up their big brothers on the corners and bends.

In over 100 degree temperature, 40 Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill Junior Chamber of Commerce members have been erecting 17,000 feet of snow fence at Buchanan Field these past weekends.

These young men are donating thousands of man hours to put on this thrilling sports event for the benefit of youth charity.

ONE OF ONLY four handicapped Boy Scout troops in Northern California will benefit from the proceeds of this race.

The Mount Diablo Therapy Center, the County Juvenile Home Party and the Annual Kids Christmas Party are some of the other causes supported by the local Junior Chambers of Commerce.

Over 15,000 people are expected to see these exciting races.

Free parking, children under 12 being admitted free, well placed rest rooms and refreshment stands, are some of the features included to make this a "family style" outing.

A FULL DAY of sports car racing with 15 events is scheduled.

The two main events are in the under-1500-cc race for modified cars and the over-1500-cc race for modified cars for senior drivers.

In the under-1500-cc event, cars such as the familiar MG, TC's, TD's and TF's, the Porsche Speedsters, the Porsche Spyder, the VW's, the OSCA's, the Devin-Panhards and smaller displacement-engined Specials compete against each other in a 30-lapper.

FOR THE OVER 1500-c.c. affair, the cream of sports cars such as the Ferraris, the Cad-Allards, the Jaguar XK 120's, XK 140's, the Triumph TR-2's, the Mercedes 300 SL's, the Austin Healy 100's, the Frazer-Nash and other high powered specials will be in the thick of the going for top honors.

Novice drivers will be given a fine chance to show their skill in the day's two openers. The first, a 10 time around for cars under 1500 c.c. modified and the second race for cars over 1500 c.c. modified.

Many drivers who have never competed in a sports car race will be in ths. Their mount having been safety checked and their driving skill proven before they can be on starting grid.

THE DAY'S most popular events are the next nine production races for both novice and senior drivers. These races, all 10 laps, are:

Volkswagen production, MG production to 1300 c.c., MG production 1300 c.c. to 1500 c.c., Porsche production, Triumph production, Austin-Healy production, Mercedes Benz 300 SL productiion, Aston Martin production, and Jaguar production plus American production sports cars.

In the above nine races, cars of equal engine size will be competing against each other with emphasis on driving skill and stamina of the cars.

A LADIES' RACE of 10 laps and another of equal distance for Formula III cars enlivens the afternoon's competition.

S.C.C.A. official general chairman of the race, Chick Leson of Lafayette announced, "Over 120 entries have been received at S.C.C.A. race headquarters. The course is fast and safe and it will be a fine race.

Course safety chairman, Ted Rothermel stated that special precaution will be taken in all vulnerable areas and ample protection will be provided for both the spectators and cars at all times.

THE SNOW FENCE and hay bales can assure the spectator of maximum safety. Safety belts will be worn by all the drivers (a device shown to be practical and which will probably be included in family cars in the future).

In a proclamation signed August 11, Walnut Creek's Mayor, Edward C. (Ted) Counter, announced the week beginning August 14 and ending August 21, 1955, as Sports Car Week.

LAFAYETTE WILL be well represented by two well qualified entrants.

Out to prove that engine size isn't necessarily a criterion of speed will be Seymour "Chick" Leson. Leson will be driving a new OSCA 1500 c.c. machine, built by Maserati of Italy.

The new OSCA, with an engine on third the size of an American V-T, will accelerate from zero to 100 miles per hour in just 20 seconds, and will definitely be a car to watch.

AMONG OTHER WINS, Leson took first place in the famed Pebble Beach Sports Car Races in 1954, and second at Pebble Beach this year.

Lafayette's George Sawyer will be on a Ferrari 4.5 litre with a most interesting competition body by Gordon Vann of Berkeley.

Ferrari's "flying horse" insignia has been in the winner's circle a great number of times, the most recent being Phil Hill's spectacular Pebble Beach win on a Ferrari Monza. Buchanan's long straightaway should see Sawyer's car exceeding 130 miles per hour.

OTHER ENTRANTS representing the area will be:

From Lafayette: Morrow Decker driving an MG TD; Ridelle Gregory, a Volkswagen; Ed Ingalls, Chrysler Special, and Lyle P. Lund, MG TD.

From Walnut Creek: Austin Davis, MG TF, and Brett Morehouse, Austin Healy.

THE LOCAL Chambers of Commerce have expressed their gratitude to Mobilgas Stations Corporation, who is furnishing all gas, oil and lube jobs to the cars entered in the race.

All restaurants in the Buchanan Field area will be open full time tomorrow and Sunday.

Sunday's event is under the auspices of the San Francisco Region of the Sports Car Club of America.

Area Schools to Open Sept. 6; Orinda Sept. 12

An estimated 88,000 students will begin classes September 6 and 12 when the 1955-56 school year begins in the county's 34 school districts.

All schools in the central area of the county — Alamo, Danville, Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill — will re-open September 6, according to County Superintendent of Schools B. O. Wilson.

ONLY ORINDA will deviate from this schedule, where the schools will open September 12 (see separate story).

Many of the students will be entering classes in brand new buildings. Strandwood School will care for many pupils in the Pleasant Hill area of the Mt. Diablo Unified School District and Springhill School will open its doors to Lafayette students.

Miramonte High School will be open on Moraga Highway to take an incoming freshman class at the high school level.

OTHER NEW SCHOOLS at the elementary level include Walnut Creek School and the Pine Grove School in Orinda, to be opened some time this fall.

Total increase in registration this year, kindergarten through junior college, is expected to be approximately 4000.

THIS IS YOUR community. Attend meetings, participate, vote. Read about what is happening.

Juvenile Hall Committee Forms

A campaign is presently underway to enlist support for the Juvenile Hall on Arnold Industrial Highway.

In the past, the work has been undertaken by the Juevnile Hall Auxiliary, but the fall program is so far reaching and the need for additional aid and support so vital, that a steering committee has been set up which will include individuals and delegates from organizations interested in promoting the campaign, according to Mrs. David Edwards.

The first meeting for the organization of the steering committee was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Edwards, 1631 Emma Court, Concord.

The following have been active in the work of the Juvenile Hall: the Mesdames Lawrence Nicholson, Charles Compton, Alex Partansky, Thomas Longino, of the Fleet Reserve Auxiliary, Virginia Stavig, George Derana, Robert Nelson, John Bercovitz, George Faul, Lester Dunkin, H. E. Pattie, Don Stephen and Attorney David Bortin and Norman Kestner, all of Concord.

Others are Eugene Braselton, and the Mesdames Mayer Girande, Donald T. Urhausen and E. D. McKinnon, all of Pleasant Hill; "Doc" Blue, Mrs. Byron Hubbard and Mrs. Richard Spear of Walnut Creek; Miss Claire Jose of Martinez; the Mesdames C. Eugene Johnson, F. P. Lonergan, Harold C. Frazeir, Oscar Busch, all of Danville; Mrs. H. J. Hart Jr., of Orinda.

EBMUD to Build Storage Tanks

Contracts totalling more than $350,000 for new water storage facilties in Contra Costa County have been awarded by the East Bay Municipal Utility District, EBMUD General Manager John W. McFarland announced today.

The five million gallon reservoir, supplementing EBMUD water facilities in western Contra Costa County, will be of prestressed concrete construction. It is scheduled for completion in October, 1956.

Jonas Hill and Dos Osos Tank construction contracts also were awarded to Freethy on his combined low bid of $65,778.98 for the two water storage units.

Jonas Hill Tank will be located off of Jonas Hill Road, one mile south of St. Mary's Road in the Lafayette District. Dos Osos Tank will be located near the end of Dos Osos Street in the Orinda District.

Both are scheduled for completion before the end of 1955.

Christian Science

The way of health and holiness, of dominion over fear and sin in which Christ Jesus came to teach, will be emphasized at services Sunday in Churches of Christ, Scientist, 42 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus" will include the Master's healing of the servant of the high priest as recorded in Luke's Gospel (22:50, 51): And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. And Jesus answered and said, "Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him."

Correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (54:10-17):

"That he might liberally pour his dear-bought treasurers into empty or sin-filled human storehouses, was the inspiration of Jesus' intense human sacrifice. In witness of his divine commission, he presented the proof that Life, Truth, and Love heal the sick and the sinning, and triumph over death through Mind, not matter. This was the highest proof he could have offered of divine Love."

THE PRIEWES' screened in porch was decorated with authentic paraphernalia brought back with them, and leis flown in from Hilo just for the occasion.

Co-hosts for the event were Dr. and Mrs. Robert Cuenin of Danville and Dr. and Mrs. John Hansen of Orinda.

Husbands Revolt From Pit at Branch Barbecue

Husbands of members of Cottonwood Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay have laid down their spatulas in revolt.

For the "Cottonwood Country Club," designation given to the third annual barbecue which the Branch is sponsoring August 27 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cannon in Alamo, the former volunteer-chefs will be "on strike" for more leisure and fun.

No more sweltering over the smoldering spit, they say, nor roasting over the glowing fireplace. This time the fancy beef filets must be barbecued by a caterer!

Around 200 persons, Branch members, their husbands and friends, are expected at the party which will be staged in the patio, with swimming, outdoor games and dancing for entertainment—a sort of a "last fling of summer," according to Mrs. Robert Warner, chairman of the committee. The party begins at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Michael Ferrone is assisting Mrs. Warner in plans for the party, and reservations can be made through Mrs. Donald Vance, ticket chairman.

Robins Prepare 'It's For Fun'

Mrs. Bart Perdue, assisted by Mrs. Walter Weinzheimer, is general chairman, and her committee is planning an evening of fun with many interesting prizes and the awarding of two tickets to the Big Game, which has been a feature of the unit for several years.

Anyone wishing to attend may secure tickets from any member of the unit or by calling the ticket chairman, Mrs. Earl Guy, at MU 5-3361 or Mrs. Logan Coffee at MU 2-9633.

The Party committee was made up of Marian and Idar Gogstad and John and Ethel Leigh of Lafayette and Frank and Sally Enearl of Walnut Creek.

Her gown bodice had a boat neckline with a scalloped edge cuff; tiny scalloped sleeves a shoulder length illusion veil attached to a Swedish crown of net and pearls, and a bouffant skirt.

The new Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kangas of Oakland.

AFTER THE WEDDING at the U. S. HACom Chapel, a reception was held at the Molkenkur Club located in the hills of Heidelberg.

Maid of Honor, Pat Henricus of San Francisco is a Alpha Delta Pi sorority sister of the bride at University of California. She is touring Europe this summer.

The brother of the groom, Barry G. Smith, served as best man. He is presently employed in Germany.

Among the other Bay area friends present at the wedding were Mrs. Kangas, mother of the bride, and Mr. Smith, father of the groom.

THE GOWN WORN by Miss Henricus, maid of honor was of grey polished cotton, princess style with a white peter pan collar. She carried on her arm a bouquet of long stemmed carnations in a golden hue with red tips.

The newlyweds are now "at home" in Mannheim, Germany, following a honeymoon trip through the Black Forest on down to Zurich, Switzerland.

The groom is a private in the Army stationed with the 37th Motor Transportation Command as its official photographer.

Friden Ranch Holds Ride And Barbecue

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Friden of Green Valley Ranch of Alamo Oaks, Danville, mixed the old with the new August 6 when they had more than 40 of their neighbors to join in riding and barbecue.

The setting for the festive barbecue steak dinner, that was served at the close of the day's ride up the mountain, was Folded Hills Farm, a rambling ranch home on a knoll, with a sweeping view of San Ramon Valley.

THE GROUP MEETS once a month at the home of one or another of the riders. The day being exceptionally warm, a dip in the pool was the first thing that appealed to the weary equestrians. This was followed by snacks and cocktails in the open air hall where the long tables were decorated with bowls of fruit.

To the accompaniment of dance music, the charcoal braziers were made ready for the barbecuing of the steaks. Salads of several varieties, cakes, and desserts were brought in, these made by the wives of the riders, who volunteered to furnish this part of the meal.

AMONG THOSE seated about the tables were Messrs. and Mesdames Raymond C. Force Jr., C. W. Koch, Harold W. Smith, William Hale Jr., Gray Minor, and Jack Imrie, all of Diablo.

Also Messrs. and Mesdames Manuel Giffin, James Berryhill, Dave Humphrey, Robert Oestreich, Lawrence Curtola, Robert Bell, Robert Lindgren, Joseph Hendrick, J. R. Knowland Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Brown and Dr. and Mrs. William Helfrich.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Humphrey will be host and hostess to the riders and their guests at their home for the next ride, the last weekend in August.

Summer Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

FOOTNOTES ON NATURE . . . Summer sounds of the woods are fascinating—all sorts of pips, hoots, peeps and cheeps, but the sound that stirred us out of our lethargy a recent night was a very audible rhythmic rattle or constant ticking. Curiosity aroused, courage mustered, and guided by much moonlight, we cautiously descended the back hill to check our eldest and his pal Stevie Ccarich who were "sleeping out".

What a vivid imagination had conjured up as a real-live rattler or possibly a Peter Pan-type crocodile from the creek, turned out to be nothing more than the old alarm clock which the boys had dutifully placed beside their sleeping bags. Having a relieved chuckle to ourselves, we bumped into—

A BUSY GOPHER who came through w/a little "dirt" and gave us a line to his "underground channels" . . . Seems that the George Hauers hold somewhat of a record for summer itinerants . . . Recent houseguests there were former Orindians Betty and Byron Miller, w/Deb, who had no sooner settled in the guestroom when the Masons, Mel, Roseann and their 4 girls, (Redheads, all!) came to a halt at the Hauers in their red trailer, tired after a trip up from their new home at Newport Beach.

Nearby friends, the Leonard Roths, themselves on a respite from guests, came to the rescue and the gracious Miller guests obligingly logged in again at the Roth residence down the road . . .

The crickets chirped that the Charles Scotts, who have both been active in Dramateur-doings, depart Aug. 31 for Indiana where they'll have a new home on Faculty Row at Wabash College. Charlie will do professional duties w/Eng. Lit., Speech and History of Drama courses. If they get those old Wabash Blues, it's because they leave so many good friends here!

A BUSHY-TAILED SQUIRREL, scavengering around for a midnight snack, dropped a few acorns on us . . . like Karl and Connie Sterns, another Dramateurs-duo, who will follow-up their blessed-eventing w/a new nursery in a new home in Walnut Creek . . . Bob and Clarice Johnson did Tahoe for a few days . . . The Al Baers to Pismo Beach . . . Pajama-Game ducats for the Earl Vicars—also the Don Steeles . . . Elizabeth Gray heard violinist Yehudi Menuhin at Forest Meadows in San Rafael last Sunday afternoon.

The field mice mused that Forest and Helen Hill, while in Carmel, picked out a place to stay that pampers its guests w/Breakfast in Bed! The Stan Kendalls are home from a Tuolumne-holiday.

AN INANE-LOOKING CATERPILLAR crossing our path commented that the Harry Jacksons did some sailing on San Diego Bay, cruising to Coronado, Balboa, and other southland spots, incl. a visit to Disneyland which delighted the 3 Jackson girls . . . that the usual loot of pikaki shells and cocostraws came home with the Mel Arighis and Suzanne and the Charles Wilsons and Sherry from an 18-day sightseeing sojourn together in the Islands . . . A leisurely Lurline took them over and PAA got them home in a hurry . . . that Orinda bridge devotees have a pair of winning Aces in Lynn Deshiell and Jean Downs who came out Third in honors at the No. Cal. Masters Bridge Tourney played recently at the Claremont.

THAT OLD NIGHT OWL was still hooting about the James Marvins recent Barbecue party at their home on Oak Dr. where the guests got to try out their terpsichorean talents on an outside hardwood floor, specially-installed for the occasion . . . Localites Wm. Keatings and Chuck Curriers among the pleased guests present from all points Lonnie Currier, in case you've tried to reach her too, is just home from five weeks in Nebraska.

Some rounder, that owl, who also blinked in on Hugh and Ruth MacIntyre's new home on La Senda a recent night when they passed potables around their new pool to Edith and Robert Bolman, Merle and Ruth Noble, Allen and Marian Brooks, Jack and Doris Frasier, and Jean and Joe Downs as a prelude to their all gathering at the Country Club for Steak dinner and the Aquacade . . .

A dinner party hosted by the Stanley Johnsens, in their new Miner Road menage, for their former Oakland neighbors, the William Starks and the Robert Hursts, who have many friends this side of the Tunnel.

The California quail, cutting through our property in quaint formation, came up with a few knowing nods—that since Aug. 1, Gladys Schwatka has been putting her own key in her own legal-latch in Orinda . . . that Mrs. Ruth Sawyers, Kndgtn. Teacher at Del Rey, has been a student herself this summer attending summer-session at UC . . .

THE WILD RABBITS, in the midst of debudding our best geraniums, concurred that you'd do well to take this culture-cue and make your reservations NOW for Lorita Vallely's 4th annual, lecture series, sponsored by Orinda Branch, Children's Hospital, which will commence the second Wed. of October and hold forth monthly from the stage of the spacious Orinda Theater. DO call Eleanor Underwood at CL 4-2486 or Alysone de Laveaga, CL 4-3745. They'll tell you lots more about it!

THE DEER, UNPERTURBED BY our presence chawnked green apples from our tree. If those dewy-eyed creatures are munching your prize mums, roses, and camellias, you can save yourself a lot of temper and trouble by obtaining a leaflet called "Gardening to Discourage Deer Damage." Write to the Dept. of Natural Resources, Division of Fish and Game, Sacramento, Attn: Waldemar Wiederhoeft. You're welcome!

Contractors Hear Criticism of Loan Procedures

Criticism of the recently adopted raise in down payment and shortening of amortization periods on new home construction by the Federal Housing Administration and the Veterans Administration was expressed August 11 by John "Jake" Jacobson, regional vice president of the National Association of Home Builders to a general membership dinner meeting of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County held at the Orinda Willows.

Over 65 members heard Jacobson state that the action increasing down payments by 2 per cent and shortening the loan period to 25 years was ill considered and ill advised in his opinion.

County Building Inspector Rudolph J. Kraintz advised the contractor that to maintain the high quility inspections they were receiving he felt an increase in the costs of building permits would be necessary.

New members of the association accepted by the board of directors were Tony Lemos, Lafayette; Harold W. Smith, Walnut Creek, and Ed Rodman, Lafayette .

The meeting was chaired by Garry Grover, Lafayette, president of the association, who announced that the new office building of the association would be open to the public during National Home Week, September 10-18, 1955.

"Glass Menagerie" Plays in Danville

"The Glass Menagerie," Tennessee Williams' moving drama, will be the Danville Players' final production of the summer season. The play will run tonight and tomorrow and next Friday and Saturday at the Players' theater at the Charlotte Wood School on Danville Highway in Danville, six miles from Walnut Creek.

An outstanding Broadway success when it was first produced with Laurette Taylor in 1945, the play concerns the conflicting hopes and dreams of one family, the Wingfields, and the different means they take to realize their dreams.

In the Danville Players' production, the part of Amanda, the mother, will be played by Bernice Calvin. The son, Tom, will be taken by Dale Moffitt; the daughter, Laura, by Joan Fisher, and the gentleman caller by Walter Moulder.

These actors have all appeared in previous Danville Players' productions.

The production is under the direction of Garret Boer, on the staff of the dramatic art department of the University of California.

Curtain time at the Charlotte Wood School is at 8:15 each Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Tickets are $1.00 and may be reserved by calling VErnon 7-2040 or purchased at the door before each performance. Come and see the show and stay for coffee with the cast.

Hardtops to Try For Track Record

Local racing fans are looking forward to an assault on Contra Costa Speedway track records tonight during the weekly hard top racing program, according to Gene Marsh, Walnut Creek promoter.

Last week Gene Dudley of Napa lowered the one-lap standard on the local track, while two weeks ago Bill Maher of Vallejo broke the eight-lap record. The local promoter predicted the four-lap mark will be the next to fall.

Marsh said a track resurfacing job accounted for the faster times.

Planners Tell of New 'Slide Area' Soil Test Policy

The County Planning Commission announced this week that it will require subdividers to supply soil tests where slide conditions are suspected.

The policy will help avoid delays which have developed in the past when the question of slide conditions had arisen during consideration of a subdivision, according to the planning staff.

In the future, a subdivider must furnish a geology report to the planning ccommission if that group has reason to believe a slide condition may exist at the development site.

Such conditions have been experienced freqeuntly in the county, especially in the Orinda-Lafayette-Moraga areas.

Nursery School Tea Sunday at Wrights' Home

The Board of Directors of the Lafayette Nursery School will hold a tea Sunday to welcome all new members and to acquaint them with the officers of the school.

The tea will be held in the home of Mrs. George Wright, 880 Mountain View Drive, Lafayette, from 3 to 5 p.m.

Mrs. John Starkie and Mrs. Francis Bryan are in charge of preparations.

Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. Louis Pino, Mrs. William McKee and Mrs. Harry Swab, all past presidents of the Nursery School, will be pouring tea.

Baldwin Attains Attendance High

Ralph R. Roberts, clerk of the House of Representatives, has issued a summary showing the voting record of each member of Congress for the first session of the 84th Congress.

This voting record shows that Congressman John F. Baldwin had a 100 per cent record of attendance on the 76 recorded roll calls and that he answered 70 out of the 71 quorum calls during the session.

On the 71st quorum call Baldwin was testifying before the Senate Armed Services Committee at a hearing on the proposed Port Chicago Naval Magazine land acquisition, and the proposed Army land acquisition for the West Coast Ammunition Terminal at Potrero Hills, Solano County.

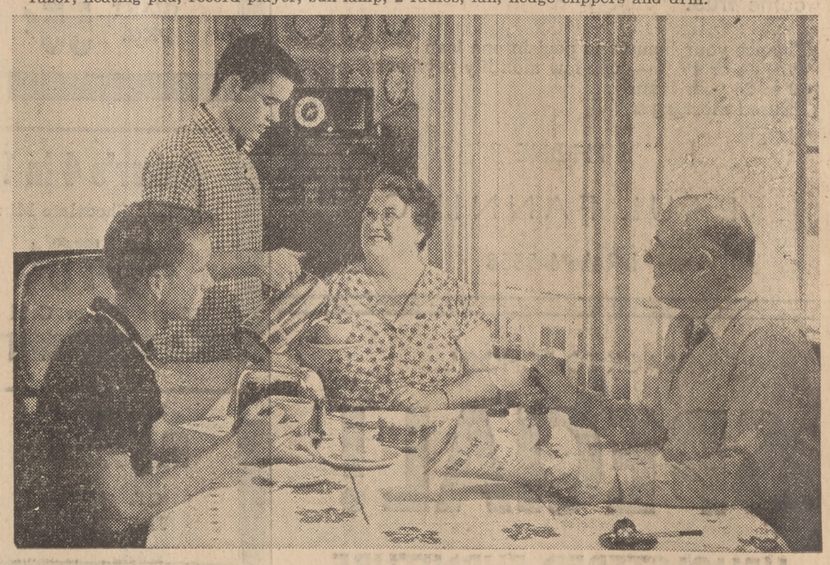
Meet the Longs who set up housekeeping in San Jose in 1935

20 YEARS AGO — when George and Jean Long were married, they had just four appliances: range, water heater, waffle iron and radio.

TODAY — their comfortable home has 19 more appliances, including: refrigerator, washer, ironer, gas furnace, television set, vacuum cleaner, toaster, mixer, clock, coffee-maker, razor, heating pad, record player, sun lamp, 2 radios, fan, hedge clippers and drill.



Today they buy $18 worth of gas and electricity for $13

...for the average unit cost is less than it was in 1935

Most Californians, like the Longs, have added gas and electric servants over the years. The average California home uses three times as much gas and electricity as twenty years ago. Naturally, your total bill is higher, but the average price of a kilowatt hour of electricity and a cubic foot of gas is about one-third less than in 1935—thanks to mass production economies. As a result, the Long's gas and electric bill in a recent month was $13.73. In 1935 the same amount would have cost over $18.00. And this same saving will most likely apply to your bill. Can you think of any other prices that are lower today than 20 years ago? No wonder we say . . .

Gas and electricity are cheap in California

Straight Season For Dove Hunting Okayed by State

A straight 30-day dove hunting season from September 3 through October 2 has been approved for California by the Fish and Game Commission.

A limit of 10 doves in the aggregate of all species, the same as last year, will be in force, the commission announced.

MAJOR CHANGES from the 1954 regulations was the adoption of the straight instead of the split season and the elimination of the noon opening. This year's season will begin on a Saturday instead of the traditional September 1 date.

White-winged doves can be hunted in Imperial and Riverside Counties.

Shooting hours statewide are from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset.

SEASON FOR band-tailed pigeons again will be October 1 through October 31 in Del Norte, Siskiyou, Modoc, Lassen, Shasta Trinity and Tehama Counties only.

In the remainder of the state the season will be December 1 through December 31.

Bag and possession limit is six birds. Shooting hours for pigeons will be one half hour before sunrise to sunset.

Don Footballers Gather Tuesday For Gym Meeting

The football season is fast approaching and a sign of the times is the announcement that all those going out for football at Acalanes High School this year will meet at the gym next Tuesday at 7 p.m.

The coaches will meet with candidates at that time and discuss such problems as physical examinations, gear issue and practice schedules.

Practice for the Dons gets under way August 29. Notices to all who signed up at the close of school were mailed this week. Newcomers are urged to attend next Tuesday's meeting and sign up at that time. This includes incoming freshmen.

Swim Stars at Aquatic School

Brooks de Laneaux of Walnut Creek and Lynne Teasdel of Orinda are attending the Red Cross Aquatic School at Goleta, near Santa Barbara. Sponsored by Mt. Diablo Chapter, American National Red Cross, they are taking courses to become instructors in water safety.

De Laneux, 20, a four-year letter man at Acalanes High School, who established new records each year in the butterfly and breast strokes, set a national junior record for the 200 yard breast stroke while attending Sacramento Junior College.

He has won numerous other honors including the championship at a swimming meet held recently by the 49th Division of the National Guard in encampment at Camp Roberts.

Lynne Teasdel, 18, participated for three years in the Oakland Water Follies sponsored by Athens Athletic Club, won second place in the Junior Olympics for synchronized swimming in 1951 and was winner of the girls division of the "Mississippi Swim" at Athens Athletic Club in 1952. She plans to enter the University of California this fall.

THIS IS YOUR community. Attend meetings, participate, vote. Read about what is happening.

Swim School Prepares for Skill Shows

With the approach of the end of summer, recreation district, Red Cross and private swimming schools in the vicinity are preparing for a final grand show.

The many students, both young and old, who have spent a profitable summer in mastering the arts of swimming, diving and other water skills will have a chance to show their skill at the wonderful sport of "water-play."

TYPICAL AF THE end-of-summer activities is the "Aquacade" planned by the Soltau Swim School, 2540 San Miguel Drive, Walnut Creek, for 2 p.m., August 28.

Approximately 80 students will display both water skills and water safety learned under the unique "happy" method used at the school. The students will give demonstrations of their ability under the direction of their teachers.

Races and the awarding of prizes will be the feature of the Aquacade. Other events will be coin diving and a gold fish catch. A demonstration of synchronized swimming will be offered by 12-year-old Judy Whitmarsh of Orinda.

THE SCHOOL'S INSTRUCTORS are Bud and Lorraine Soltau, Mrs. Phyllis Laity of Lafayette, Joe Garner of Walnut Creek and Judy Roethlisberger of Lafayette.

The public is invited to the aquacade; there is no charge.

Swmming sessions at Soltau's will continue for another two months.

Plenty of Throwing Doesn't Strain Young Hurlers' Arms

One of the things that has almost become a fear with many is the idea that has been repeated down through the years in regard to the use of a youngster's arm in baseball.

Time and again you hear it said: "If he throws too much he will ruin his arm — he will throw it out."

Personally, I have never known a young ball player who "threw his arm out," and that goes back a good many years as far as baseball is concerned both as a coach and as a player.

The danger usually comes when one gets older and the muscles and joints tend to lose their elasticity.

The main thing is to warm up gradually and thoroughly, particularly on a cold day when it takes longer for muscles to warm up.

I could be wrong, but I feel that the difficulty lies in not too much throwing, but not enough.

ONE VERY IMPORTANT thing in throwing is, strange as it may seem, to have well-conditioned legs. Running and walking are all important to any athlete, whether in football, golf, tennis, swimming, track or baseball. In fact, legs are one of the first things to give out once an athlete is past his peak.

The automobile has created a definite problem in conditioning of athletes, particularly when they have to hop in the "jalopy" to go to the corner and pick up the mail.

Getting back to arms, it is really news when a baseball pitcher goes the route, particularly in the Pacific Coast League. A pitcher works four or five innings, and as soon as he gets in any trouble, in comes relief.

It has gotten so a pitcher looks for relief any time things get a bit tough — somehow it seems that pitchers would do better jobs if they knew that, in general, the game rested on their shoulders, and that a relief pitcher would be on his way only if really needed.

SPEAKING OF LEGS and physical conditioning, the stress on all football coaches comes August 29 in the local prep circles when practice begins with the emphasis on running and calisthenics.

Workouts will be held on a two a day basis in all camps as squads must be readied in a period of 16 days, and that's little time to whip a squad into shape for the opening game.

One of the big problems is adjusting drills to fit players with a wide variety of experience behind them. All squads will have players up for their first try at varsity competition while others will be three-year veterans.

Coaching staffs of the various high schools will present some new faces, and some will be missing.

AT ACALANES, Charles Eaton retires from the football picture to turn his attention to cross-country which runs concurrent with the pigskin schedule.

Jean Ridley moves up from the junior varsity to take over the varsity line while yours truly handles the backs.

Mr. Smith, who coached tennis last year, will add JV football to his activities, working with Bob Stevens, head JV mentor the past few seasons.

OVER LAS LOMAS way, Merrill Callow takes over JV football after serving with the varsity as line coach last season, and prior to that, as head coach of the top eleven.

Agencies Planning for Area Must Really Look to Future

One fact emerges ever more clearly from the turmoil of activity and argument revolving around this area's many problems—the need for advanced thinking and planning by our state, county and local governmental agencies.

This necessity exists in varied fields.

Whether the problem under consideration concerns school sites, roads, highways, freeways, sewers, recreation facilities or any of the numerous issues confronting us, the situation is such that careful planning for the future is obviously a "must."

In this county, which is probably the most rapidly growing county in the entire nation, there certainly is no danger that our officials may plan too far ahead or too much.

Rather, the danger is that they may plan "too little and too late."

Population, business activity, home-building and the hundred-and-one related problems are zooming with constantly increasing speed throughout our county—and especially in the central portion of the county.

Those agencies looking well ahead in their planning deliberations are to be heartily commended.

Examples of such far-seeing, practical agencies are the state and county authorities in their planning of the Shepherd Canyon.

The route for Shepherd Canyon is being planned so that it will be known well in advance of location of many homes in the area.

Also demonstrating keen awareness of the problems of growth are the various school boards, in their efforts to obtain sites for schools which will be needed in the future.

On the other hand, there are exampes which show a lack of the most timely planning.

In the planning for Lafayette and Walnut Creek By-Passes, for instance, many pieces of built-on property are right in the line of routing. So the homes or businesses involved must be moved out of the way.

Of course, it is true that a few years ago pratically no one could foresee how fast this area would grow. Therefore maybe no one is really to blame for the fact that by-pass routing wasn't accomplished earlier.

Yet how much more convenient it would now be for everyone concerned if the planning had been done earlier!

And one of the main lessons of the present inconveniences is that such charting should be done well in advance, with an eye to inevitable growth of population, homes, businesses and schools.

It is to be hoped that governmental officials, various district boards, improvement associations and individual citizens become increasingly aware of the need for advanced planning.

Through such awareness many of the headaches of today can be avoided in the future.

Taxpayers See Revenue Increase For CC County

The Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association, after reviewing the county budget, announced this week that county revenue will be higher in most categories during the 1955-56 year.

Excluding the property tax levy, total revenue is estimated at $12,335,895 as compared to $11,216,173 last year.

LARGEST INCREASE is in the general fund carry-over balance, which had unexpectedly dropped to $525,670 last year, causing budgeting difficulties. It is now over one million dollars, which is near its normal level.

Other large revenue increases include: Tax sale proceeds, $17,000; state road subventions, $51,000; welfare subventions, $483,000; court fees, $5000; building inspection fees, $4000; county hospital charges, $58,000; subdivision charges, $8000 and interest on county invested funds, $3000.

REVENUE HAS decreased in "in lieu' 'taxes by $52,000 due to public housing demolition and recorders fees, $18,000, due to changes in state law.

County property sale has diminished by $7000 and county work for districts has fallen off by $6000, said the taxpayers' group.

The taxpayers' group noted that the budget does not include any estimate of the local sales tax revenue.

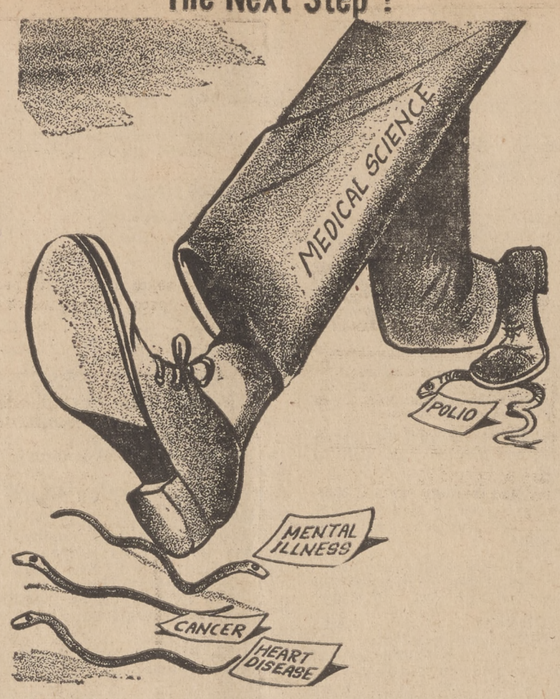
Reverand Roland Smith of the Pleasant Hill Community Baptist Church will also report. Invitations have been sent to all Protestant churches in the area.

The Next Step ?



USO Seeking Junior Hostesses

Because of the greatly increased program of the Diablo Area USO Club held each week in the recreation building, City Park, Walnut Creek, from 1 to 9 p.m. there is a great need for junior hostesses to assist with the entertainment of the armed forces attending the activities, Mrs. Leona Paul, USO junior hostess chairman, has announced.

Girls can enroll if they are single and between the ages of 17 and 30 and are required to give two character references, Mrs. Paul continued. The girls are interviewed individually and must pledge attendance at the junior hostess training course.

They further must be willing to participate in requested USO duties either at the club or at Parks Air Force Base. USO junior hostesses do not attend any activities where liquor is served and all hostesses are transported to the base activities in air force busses with senior chaperones in attendance.

Though organized as a group, the junior hostesses are under adult leadership on all occasions.

Girls wishing to become junior hostesses can phone Mrs. Paul at YE 4-4198 or address a letter to her at 1009 Pleasant Valley Drive, Walnut Creek. They may also inquire at the Walnut Creek Recreation Building, City Park, Sundays from 1 to 8 p.m.

W. Henry to Speak At Mart Breakfast

Breakfast Chairman Ray McCoy of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board has announced that W. W. Henry of the Richmond-El Cerrito Board will be guest speaker at the Monday Mart Breakfast. He will speak on "leases."

The annual election of officers and directors has been changed to the second Monday in September. President Ben Hamlin has appointed a nominating committee of all past presidents and a salesman representative, Frank Curtis. The committee met at the board office yesterday at 10 a.m.

The board of trustees is considering six properties as a possible site for a new board office. No final decision has been reached and properties may still be submitted for the board's consideration. The consensus of opinion at the last board meeting was that the office would be located in the Walnut Creek or Lafayette area.

What They Say

More Fun When Gramp Was Boy?

Grandpa is always telling the family how much colder the winters were when he was a boy, and how much fun he had with his old homemade toboggan. And he'll never forget the old swimmin' hole in summer, and how his gang never bothered with trunks. In fact, he thinks the water must have been wetter.

According to grandpa, he had a lot more fun growing up in his rural area than kids do today. Maybe he's right.

Our researchers made an attempt this week to find out.

They asked this question of a group of people: "Do you think kids in our area today have as much fun as kids did in rural areas in our grandparents' time?"

Mrs. John Boyen, 4 Via Floreado, Orinda, replied: "No, I don't think so. Families were closer, and visited one another more frequently, allowing children to become very friendly on a family basis.

"Recreational facilities like playgrounds are a little too formal now. Even I can remember more simple pleasures at the time I was a child."

Mrs. Richard G. Gall, 1131 Laurel Drive, Lafayette, thought children do not have as much fun because of "too many restrictions."

"Things are too formal now," she continued, "No time is left for creative projects of their own. We plan the whole day for the children, and spend too much time worrying about what kind of friends they will have next door, forgetting that they will have to associate with all kinds of people in this world."

"They develop a shallow character rather than a full one by too much guidance in every detail. The children don't make their own decisions."

"OH, I THINK they have," was the emphatic reply of Charles Currier of 1452 Sunset Loop, Walnut Creek. "The large play areas, back-yards and the climate allow the children lots of fun. And, of course, children are not as restricted now-a-days," Curier added.

Michael Ryan of 113 Danville Court, Danville, also felt that kids have more fun today. His reasons were: "Industry has given more thought to children's entertainment —plastic pools, swings, toys, etc."

MRS. ARTHUR BEHM of 157 Sylvan Road, Walnut Creek, agreed that children had more fun today but felt that there was a flaw. "Children's play and entertainment is provided for them by the recreation departments and their families rather than by themselves. The art of making one's own fun is more and more becoming lost," Mrs. Behm said.

"Yes, I think so," was the immediate reply of Mrs. Carl Kolbeck of Danville Highway, Alamo, who felt that "—the fun of the 'good old times' has been magnified. She added, "Today's rural child has both the open play spaces and yet the closeness of the neighbor's children for companionship."

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

A file folder full of notes

Snoopy, the office cat, peered over the trusty Underwood and purred, "Well, Windbag, what are you writing about this week? What are you going to proclaim from your high and mighty soapbox?"

I answered, "Snoopy, old pal, I think you are giving me the needle. I haven't outlined my column yet, but I know there is nothing momentous or startling on the agenda."

Snoopy sniffed. "What — no sermon on how to solve the ills of Central Contra Costa County! No oration on politics or taxes? No message from above? Pray tell, why not?"

(Snoopy was last seen flying through the open door, closely followed by the latest edition of the telephone book.)

Today, dear reader, let's dip into the file folder and pull out some notes.

Snap on the safety belt

Here's a clipping that says safety belts may become standard equipment on all official county cars. The Supervisors, upon recommendation of the County Health Department, authorized their installation in 30 sheriff's patrol cars and, if satisfactory, two belts will be installed in all other county cars.

You may recall that Eleanor Silverman, chairman of the board of our family, ordered the installation of one safety belt in the front seat of our car. I had no objection — only inertia.

After a year I can report this: The belt is very rarely used. If a child wants to sit in front, he must use the belt. Thus, the major use of the belt is to keep the kids in the back seat, which is certainly a worthwhile safety practice. I don't recall an adult using the safety device.

I hastily add that safety belts are excellent — if they are used.

Here's a memo from our news desk, saying there is no election this year of directors to the board of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District. Three will be elected in September, 1956. This memo was in answer to several queries we've had lately.

Something for the kids

Here's a note reminding myself to discuss the summer and year-around community recreation programs for our children.

You have heard people say, on occasion, there is plenty of room for the kids to play in our areas, so why worry about parks, recreation centers or programs. This summer is an answer to these people. Literally thousands of children in Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek, Alamo, Lafayette and Orinda participated in community recreation programs. The need was there and this need is increasing every year.

Additional facilities and programs are needed for all age groups throughout the year. I would guess that the teen-agers face the major problem. Or should I say the community faces a real problem entertaining the teen-agers?

Here's a note on the announcement by Supervisor H. L. "Jack" Cummings that he plans to run for re-election next June. This is a most interesting situation. People have been asking, "Who is going to run against Cummings?"

Hats Off department:

Here's a Hats Off Note. Hats Off to Congressman John Baldwin on his 100 per cent record of attendance in Congress, as announced by the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Democrat or Republican, pro- or anti-Baldwin, almost everyone will agree that his attendance record is mighty fine.

Let's wind up with a note reminding that you and the family will have real fun Saturday and/or Sunday seeing the sports car races at Buchanan Field. People will travel hundreds of miles to see this event. Pleasant Hill and Walnut Creek Jay Cees are doing a terrific job as sponsors of the races. And in advance — a Hats Off to them.

Handicapped Kids Get Chance to Camp

All over Contra Costa County this week children will be getting sleeping bags ready and packing suitcases preparatory to going to camp. Hardly a rare occurrence in summertime, at least in homes where children are sturdy in body and strong of limb.

But for 24 Contra Costa County youngsters, this is truly a rare occurrence, for most of them wear braces, some walk with crutches, and a few must sit in wheel chairs all of the time.

THESE ARE THE children who next week and the two weeks following will attend the Easter Seal Camp near Boulder Creek sponsorde by Santa Cruz Society for Crippled Children.

The younger group, 6 to 10 years of age, attended the Easter Seal camp this week, and the older youngsters, 11 to 16 years old, will attend for the two week period starting Sunday. The disabilities include muscular dystrophy, polio, cerebral palsy, and traumatic conditions.

THE GENEROUS response of the residents of Contra Costa County to this year's Easter Seal campaign has made it possible for the unusually large number of Contra Costa County children to go to resident camp, according to officials of the Easter Seal Society of Contra Costa County.

Intimate Theater Presents 'Picnic' in Unique Style

"A contemporary, realistic, human comedy" is director Leon Dinkin's intriguing brief description of William Inge's prize winning play "Picnic" which will be given four performances by the Intimate Theater of Walnut Creek.

The first two performances will be given tonight and tomorrow evening, at the Valley Art Center, 3420 Mount Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, in an outdoor theater.

NEXT FRIDAY and Saturday evenings, August 26 and 27, there will be two performances in the Little Theater at Acalanes High School, Lafayette.

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

This weekend's outdoor production will be the first of its kind offered to Contra Costa little theatergoers. Director Dinkin and Stan Stillson are given credit for the effective set depicting two small-town midwestern homes facing on a single back yard.

To the yard comes a stranger. The play deals with the impact the stranger's coming has on the women who people the two homes.

THE WOMEN in the cast are: enchanting Francis Shurtliff and Corinne Neumann, Shirley Shaw, Edith Dinkin, Deanna Dinkin, Dorothy Drake, all of Walnut Creek and Nancy Erickson of Pleasant Hill.

The gentlemen in the cast are: Gordon Kull, James Lynde, Harry Freeman and Al Whitman.

Admission to any of the showings of "Picnic" will be $1. Tickets may be purchased at the door since there are no reserved seats.
